

Falco Vs. The Young Canoeist

mclusky

Can he catch a fish, can he bring it in
Can he get a boat, can he get a rod
Can he even swim?

Recusant you're not better, go for broke
Blame me if you like, blame the parasites
Hope it's all a joke

Catch me if you can, couldn't catch a cold
Serving on the side, it's a paradigm
Looking rather old

Can he catch a fish, can he bring it in
Can he get a boat, can he get a rod
Can he even swim?

Do try, do try

Comfort is the cause that you're looking for
Can he stand alone as a baritone
Will he touch the floor

Motorize the past, get you fucking gone
Sitting on the source of a power play
Nothing could be wrong

Profit are the arms that you wave around
Coming to the crunch, better learn to punch
Better stand your ground

Take it out of me, put it on your bed
Polish it for sale, add a hand rail
Sell it to the blind

Do try, do try

Can he catch a fish, can he bring it in
Can he get a boat, can he get a rod
Can he even swim?

Recusant you're not better, go for broke
Blame me if you like, blame the parasites
Hope it's all a joke

Catch me if you can, couldn't catch a cold
Serving on the side, it's a paradigm
Looking rather old

Can he catch a fish, can he bring it in
Can he get a boat, can he get a rod
Can he even swim?
