

Hey Elzar, Take It Up Another Notch With The Spice Weasel. BAM!

Me vs Hero

We've taken one foot out on the grave
And this will be the first chance that we'll take
We'll be standing on our own two feet again,
Trying to fight the demons that lie within (that lie within!)
We'll take too much notice of the courage
And our hearts will be our guiding stars in our solar system
Did you really think that we could be beaten?

Now that it's dark the crowds have departed (we'll stand our ground!)
Take it back, take it back a step again

We're standing up to be the lifetime members
We're heated up watching life in stereo
Don't give it up we can relight the embers
Fight for the cause (fight for the cause!)
Scream for the iron fisted (we're rolling on!)
Scream for the iron fisted (we're rolling on, fight for the cause!)

Jump from the bridge into the lake
And this will be the first chance that we'll take
We'll be dying for our own beliefs again
Trying to find the hero that lies within (that lies within!)
We'll take too much notice of the courage
And our hearts will be our guiding stars in our solar system
Did you really think that we could be beaten?

Now that it's dark the crowds have departed
(We'll stand our ground, this is our time to stand and fight!)

Calling up a revolution from the stage
It's shaping up to be another of those nights
Save your breath 'cause no one's listening
We both know you better what your fucking mouth

Scream for the iron fisted (we're rolling on!)
Scream for the iron fisted (we're rolling on, fight for the cause!)

(Here we stand with a thousand voices, take this land it's our right!)
