

As You Sow You Shall Reap

Mean Streak

Watching from above
His eyes will follow every move
Waiting for the moment of despare Standin' in the crossroad gazin'
at a distant sky
Is the truth for real or just a lie
Signing a deal with the devil
You got to know how to play his game
Signing a deal with the devil
reaching for fortune and fame
All in vain...

As you sow you shall reap
Steel will rust you will see Recall in your nightmares repent now as you fall asleep
As you sow you shall reap

Like a fool that's burning every bridge there is to burn Turning every stone there is to turn Haunted by the demons that is rising in my mind
Got to go and leave it all behind
Signing a deal with the devil
reaching for fortune and fame
All in vain...
