

Declaration of War

Mean Streak

Run for your life better hide where you can,
Hear the drums of the war
Head for the mountain and stick to your plan,
Nothing's sacred no more
When darkness falls and evil rise once more
The sinner and the sacred is at war

Declaration, of war,
Declaration, Premonitions in black
Declaration, of war,
Declaration, The demolition is back
Declaration of war

Fight for your freedom believe in your cause,
There is no turning back,
Fire is burning relentless in force,
A fearless attack
When darkness falls and evil rise once more
The sinner and the sacred is at war

Declaration, of war,
Declaration, Premonitions in black
Declaration, of war,
Declaration, The demolition is back
Declaration of war
