

Sinners and Saints

Mean Streak

No one can see what goes on in your head
Nobody knows though the books have been read
Hatred and lies we're all living in shadows
Addicted to vengeance of fate we are stained
Tormented by fear of mankind once remain
Cast into dark a believers betrayal

So here we stand in a state of confusion
When the rivers have dried, We hold the final solution

We're all sinners and saints lost in our ways
We have the power we're breaking the chains
Sinner and saints lost in the maze
We hold the answer to freedom of sinners and saints

A world of seduction is waiting for you
Into destruction and out from the truth
All that you hear the masses are calling
So follow the damned follow the used
Follow the blind don't respect the refused
Swallow your reason to fight and be caught in despair
