

The End of the Rainbow

Mean Streak

I hide in the shadows when I should be in the light I travel the cold and lonely night I stand in the doorway when I should be on my way I guess I will wait another day
Fire, burning endlessly
Sunlight, come on, shine on me

At the end of the rainbow, where the diamonds and pearls will be
The end of the rainbow, set me free

Is the chase of freedom just a black charade in vain
Can I be the master of my pain
Fire, burning endlessly
Sunlight, come on, shine on me

At the end of the rainbow,
where the diamonds and pearls will be
The end of the rainbow, set me free
