

The Seventh Sign

Mean Streak

First there lack of respect, the second sign is hate
Third is no forgiving, it is our common fate
Learn to see the signs now, before it is too late
Intolerance and greed, weapons we create

Soldiers marching in, let the games begin

The seventh sign, a falling star
The seventh sign, as black as we are

Time for retribution, face your darkest fears
Silent revolution, judgement day is here
Blood runs in the streets now, riots everywhere
A hopeless situation, people in dis pare

Soldiers marching in, let the games begin

The seventh sign, a falling star
The seventh sign, as black as we are
