

Learning To Be Brave

Means

Looking back on all I've done
Looking over everything
All these empty promises that lay at my feet
What can be redeemed?
What will remain when I can't hold on?

What will I say
if all my words come back empty?
How can i be changed?

Breathe deeper now
Because all of us, we need strength
Breathe deeper now
So all of us can stand

And if anything, I want to be brave
And if anything, I want to be changed OHHH!

Break your fallow ground (3x)

I will take I will take courage to move on
And though I lay in dust
or uncertainty
I am not abandoned

If anything I want to be brave
to be brave
If anything I want to be brave
Learning to be brave
