

Makeshift Heart

Means

Here in this moment,
You're forming me from miray clay
Your making me
Your raising this up in me where I was made
Your stirring this up in me, like the deepest ocean
If you break my heart, then you break my life,
But don't break what I was meant to do
Makeshift
Don't take another step
This is what we're made for
Makeshift
You were made as we rise up from the dust
You grab my heart,
You grab my hand
