

Going All the Way Is Just the Start (A Song in 6 Movements)

Meat Loaf

Sometimes it's the night
And the way it seems to cry
And whisper terrifying secrets in your ear
Sometimes it's the day
And the sun has got no mercy
Lighting up and burning everything that's in its way

There are times I've gotta run
Times I've gotta hide
Things I've left undone
Things I've cast aside
So many things to try
So many things denied
If I ever tell you the truth
I'd swear you would leave me
I need the proof
That you would believe me

You think I fly like an angel without any tears
Higher and higher, above the world and all its fears

Everybody's ready to fly
But the storms are never so very far

And you think my life is shining like a star
But the fears are never very far
And

We always seem so much braver than we ever are
We always dream we seem braver but we never are Karla & Ellen: Let's run away
Let's go so far

There are secrets I never can tell
There are shadows of darkness and heaven
There are so many suburbs of hell
And their hours are 24/7

There are so many wounds you can't heal
So many nightmares are turning too real
So much of paradise lost and you added the cost
But there's nothing to be sorry for Now we can feel so much more
Now we can be loving you
Nothing that we're scared to do

You see me smile and you swear that I could walk on air
You see me dancing, the moonlight glancing at my hair
You see me as powerfully strong
But the nightmare's never so very far

And you think my life is shining like a star
But the tears are never very far!
The fears are never very far!
And

We always seem so much braver than we ever are

We always seem to be braver but we never are

Let's fly away
Let's go too far

Sometimes it's the flesh
And the way it seems to yearn
For all the magic of the single perfect touch

Sometimes it's the soul
And it's waiting for salvation
You'll know when you get it
There can never be too much

There are times I've gotta run
Times I've gotta hide
Things I've cast aside
So many things to try
So many things denied
If I ever tell you the truth
Would you ever believe me?
Show me the proof
I'm so scared you would leave me

You think I fly like an angel without any care
Higher and higher, as if I'm breathing sacred air

Everybody's ready to fly
But the storms are never so very far
And you think my life is shining like a star
But the fears are never very far
Or the nightmare's never very far
And

We always seem so much braver than we ever are
We always dream we seem braver but we never are
Let's run away
Let's go too far

Say a prayer for those who crawl
Say a prayer for those who run
Say a prayer so all and all
There's a better life to come

(we always seem so much braver than we ever are)

Say a prayer for those alone
Say a prayer for those apart
All the golden boys and girls
The crusaders of the heart

(we always dream we'd be braver but we never are)

Say a prayer for all the lost
Say a prayer for the unborn
Say a prayer for all the young
It takes a fire to keep them warm

Say a prayer for those obsessed
Say a prayer for those enslaved
Say a prayer to beat the drums
From the cradle to the grave

Say a prayer for all the saints
Say a prayer for all the sins
Let the dancing never end
Let the future now begin

Say a prayer to all the gods
Some are near and some are far
Say a prayer to all the gods
To make us braver than we are

How far is too far baby?
Come on and take me, take me!
We're crusaders of the heart
And going all the way is just the start

The crusaders of the heart

How far is too far?
How far is too far, baby?

Take me deep inside the heart
And going all the way is just the start

How far is too far baby?

Come on and take me, take me!
We're crusaders of the heart
And going all the way is just the start

The crusaders of the heart

(say a prayer)
(say a prayer)

Going all the way is just the start

Make us braver than we are

There's no such thing as too far

I've got to be where you are
Going all the way is just the start

The crusaders of the heart

How far is too far?

I've got to be where you are

Going all the way is just the start
Make us braver than we are

(we always seem so much braver than we ever are)

How far is too far baby?
Come on and take me, take me!
We're crusaders of the heart
And going all the way is just the start

(we always dream we'd be braver but we never are)

How far is too far?

How far is too far, baby?
Take me deep inside the heart
And going all the way is just the start

(we always seem so much braver than we ever are)

How far is too far baby?
Come on and take me, take me!
We're crusaders of the heart
And going all the way is just the start

(we always dream we'd be braver but we never are)

How far is too far?
How far is too far, baby?
Take me deep inside the heart
And going all the way is just the start

Say a prayer to all the gods
Some are near and some are far
Say a prayer to all the gods
To make us braver than we are

Say a prayer to all the gods
Some are near and some are far
Say a prayer to all the gods
To make us braver than we are
