Head

Meat Puppets

If I only can't decide
The crystal eight ball's on the table
Thanks for nothing
Here's my only prayer
Thin air

Long ago
The other night
Far, far away

As the head falls off the table Crashes to the floor and shatters Dust and glass are blowing everywhere Down there

Through the wall I hear you laughing You're so special I don't like you You will always be my only friend No end
