

I Quit

Meat Puppets

I believe in everything,
In the hose and the silver ring,
I believe in everyone,
But the flame has just begun.

And I will,
I quit.
Can't stand the sight of it.
And I am,
I know,
In the path of your evil glow.

I believe in the gathering,
I believe in the plastic king.
I believe in everyone,
But the flame has just begun.

And I will,
I quit.
Can't stand the sight of it.
And I am,
I know,
In the path of your evil glow.

I believe in the rotten rope,
I believe in the cantalope.
I believe in the haunted house,
I believe in the Mickey Mouse.
Don't believe in humanity,
Think they got the best of me.
I believe in the cotton tree,
Gonna' build a galaxy.

And I will,
I quit.
Can't stand the sight of it.
And I am,
I know,
In the path of your evil glow.
