Meat Puppets

Let me see everything
Let me live forever
Give me wings and show me how
To control the weather

Give me the mountains
Give me the sea
Build a mighty tower
Especially for me

Unearthly visions filled my head as I lay there
Sexy music tumbled all around
And then the music turned to emerald feathered goblins
That cast their burning pearls to the ground

Fill the tower up with food
The kind I love to eat
Send a couple maidens
Soft hands to rub my feet

Give me superhuman strength
To wipe out what is wrong
Give me all of everything
I've wanted for so long

Unearthly visions filled my head as I lay there
Sexy music tumbled all around
And then the music turned to emerald feathered goblins
That cast their burning pearls to the ground

Hot as the sun
The red rubber fountain of ecstasy
Flows from the palms of my hands
Like the wind, hot as the sun

Hot as the sun
The red rubber fountain of ecstasy
Flows from the palms of my hands
Like the wind, hot as the sun

Unearthly visions filled my head as I lay there
Sexy music tumbled all around
And then the music turned to emerald feathered goblins
That cast their burning pearls to the ground

Unearthly visions filled my head as I lay there
Sexy music tumbled all around
Unearthly visions filled my head as I lay there
Sexy music tumbled all around
