

Red Road In Purple Haze

Mechanical Poet

This pair is fascinating
They're looking really cool
So nobby, so enchanting
They're best students in the school

They want to be the therapists
They always get an "A"
The leaders of the rating lists
The heroes of Prom Day

Watch your back
Watch your way
You can't always be the best
Watch your back
Watch your way
There will be a day you'll fail the test

Six hundred five horsepower
Red label turned the head
One hundred miles an hour
All traffic lights are red

Carry, carry, carry, carry, carry on
"Chill out, Chelle, there's nothing wrong..."
Stand on the gas, don't let it go
"...Oh, NO!"

Watch your back
Watch your way
You can't always be the best
Watch your back
Watch your way
There will be a day you'll fail the test

Watch your back
Watch your way
You can't always be the best
Watch your back
Watch your way
There will be a day you'll fail the test

Come on, come on, come on!
Carry on!
