

What pain will it take?
You may see no trace of wounds
Acid the tears of remorse
Our spirits soon will rise
Dark skies were beating me down
The moon comes from the depths
See the candles of hate burning in my eyes

Im dreaming my way from down below I feel the evil close
Darkness be my guide
I hear the voice of the stars
Weave until the end of time
I will hide the pain inside
Punish me my god for all the sins i've done

Clouds surround me
Shadows behind me
Hypnotize me
Embracing the blackness

Unleash the boiling chaos
Once velled by mists of lies
Chapters of rage hands of fate open the gates of doom

Time and space collides end and beggining
Unites I'm lying here
Awake I dream this joyous scene

Let my grey in a day to show
The rain kept me on the storm
I'm flying like the ahost in the sky
The war is still before me
