

Stand Down

Media Lab

You lost it all, you loose
Stand Down
You want recognition for just breathing
I will push out all the bullshit that you feed me
You have lived your life for free
There's nothing left inside of me
To give to you, you lost it all
You'll fade away
You lost it all, you loose
Stand down
Respect is just a bullshit persona for you
You keep pretending that you're alive
Fake
You lost it all you loose
Stand Down
