

The One

Medina

You said so many things so many times before
All your empty words were just a painful cover
You always promised me that it would always be Together, you & i would be forever
I was too blind to see you had a hold on me
And i fell for every lie, you were so clever
I tried so hard to read the message in your eyes
But i wont let go of what we have together

There was a time when i was all alone
I never opened up until we found each other
Tell me why this has to be so hard
Right now i know that we belong right here together

Even if we hurt each other so
And even when you lie,
I just close my eyes and let it go
Not afraid to let all my feelings show
You'll always be the one, one, one, one
Even if i just wanna run away
And even if i hate all the stupid silly words you say
Cant deny with you is where i wanna stay
Cuz baby u're the one, one, one, one, one

Yeahh
When you say the words you know i wanna hear
I forget all the pain that i was feeling
I want those yesterdays to slowly disappear
So what u did to me ive already forgiven
You're not the one to blame for all our memories
And that was long before we ever got together
You know its you, i guess that it will always be Cuz you and i belong to one another

There was a time when i was all alone
I never opened up until we found each other
Tell me why this has to be so hard
And now i know that we belong right here together

Even if we hurt each other so
And even when you lie,
I just close my eyes and let it go
Not afraid to let all my feelings show
You'll always be the one, one, one, one
Even if i just wanna run away
And even if i hate all the stupid silly words you say
Can't deny with you is where i wanna stay
Cuz baby u're the one, one, one, one, one

Oehwww oh ohh
Oehwww

There was a time when i was all alone
I never opened up until we found each other
Tell me why this has to be so hard
And now i know that we belong right here together, babyy

Oehw heyy yeahh
I'm not afraid to let all my feelings show
You'll always be the one, one, one, one
And even if i just wanna run away
And even if i hate all the stupid silly words you say
Can't deny with you is where i wanna stay
Cuz baby u're the one, one, one, one, one
