

Bored Of Your Love

Meg & Dia

Did you think about what I said last night?
Knowing you, you probably didn't
I could picture your face on the other side
Completely oblivious
Do you really feel like this love is real?
I wish I could join you

I'm bored of your love
I'm bored of your face
I'm bored of your random all over the place attitude
I'm bored of you

So, I thought about what you said last night
Normally I probably wouldn't
But something you said kept me up all night
I tried to sleep but I just couldn't
I hope you still feel like this love is for real
'Cause I know that I do

I'm in love with your love
In love with your face
In love with almost everything that you say
Yes it's true
I'm in love with you

I'm bored with your love
(I'm in love with your love)
I'm bored of your face
(In love with your face)
I'm bored of your random all over the place attitude
I'm bored of you
(I'm in love with you)

I wish you put effort in trying to make this new (I would if you asked me, I'd do anything for you)
I wish we were strangers
(It's not like we're strangers)
In all the excitement we'd fall in love

(Guess that's it then)
Can I take you out just this one last time,
We could pretend I never met you

Well I'd love to, sounds like a lovely time,
But I'm sorry, I just can't let you

I'm bored of your love
I'm bored of your love
I'm up to my neck in this mess and I'm sorry

I'll remember your love
Remember your face
When it's over and done it won't quite be the same without you
I'll remember you
(I'll remember you)

I'll remember your love

Remember your face
When it's over and done it won't quite be the same without you
I'll remember you
(I'll remember you)
I'll remember you
