

Love Song

Meg & Dia

I've felt, this blue before.
When a love, walks out my door.
My heart, it broke,
But I know where I'm going:
Back out in the open.

Love won't you find me again?
Don't wait for my heart to mend,
I wanna fall in love again.
Why must we wait in the dark?
All that you need is another heart
To make your broken heart seem far away.

Yeah, yeah.

God knows I've done my time,
I've cried a river wide,
But there's no reason to be unhappy
When you've got all you need to build your own road.
That's how life goes.
That's how life goes.

Love won't you find me again?
Don't wait for my heart to mend,
I wanna fall in love again.
Why must we wait in the dark?
All that you need is another heart
To make your broken heart seem far away.

Got a lot of questions to where I am going,
Where my life's going,
And where I have travelled from.
I want to find a love I won't be alone,
Yeah, I won't be alone in
And I won't stop looking.

Love won't you find me again?
Love won't you find me again?
Love won't you find me again?

Why must we wait in the dark?
Why must we wait in the dark?
