

Morning

Meg Mac

Hundreds of them are all lined up in front of each other
They are waiting for someone to call them and tell them they're right
But they're not coming 'til the morning
They're not coming at all
You could wait up each night
But they're not coming at all
Ohh

Later I'm gonna take it off your hands
Later I'm gonna take it off your hands
Later I'm gonna take it off your hands
Later I'm gonna take it off your

I'm gonna take it off your hands
And I'm gonna take it off your hands
And I'm gonna take it off your hands
And I'm gonna take it off your hands
And I'm gonna take it off your hands
And I'm gonna take it off your hands
And I'm gonna take it off your hands
And I'm gonna take it off your hands

When I'm gone
No more 'please come back'
When I'm gone
No more 'please come back'

I'm gonna take it off your hands
I'm gonna take it off your hands
I'm gonna take it off your hands
I'm gonna take it off your hands
