Morning

Hundreds of them are all lined up in front of each other They are waiting for someone to call them and tell them they're right But they're not coming 'til the morning They're not coming at all You could wait up each night But they're not coming at all Ohh

Later I'm gonna take it off your hands Later I'm gonna take it off your hands Later I'm gonna take it off your hands Later I'm gonna take it off your

I'm gonna take it off your hands And I'm gonna take it off your hands

When I'm gone No more 'please come back' When I'm gone No more 'please come back

I'm gonna take it off your hands I'm gonna take it off your hands I'm gonna take it off your hands I'm gonna take it off your hands
