Burn!

Megadeth

I've got a sickening feeling My life is standing still It's clear that fate is closing in But this is the life I choose I've got so much time to kill Born to lose, I'll die to win

Burn, baby burn... 'cause it feels so good

I'm getting on my own nerves And I get no satisfaction Till I light it up and burn it down One match lights my fire And it starts a chain reaction That burns my crooked past to the ground

Burn, baby burn... 'cause it feels so good Burn, baby burn... like I knew it would Fire, I've got the fire Fire, burning desire... my desire to burn

I hear the darkness call The sirens are growing near It's time I make my great escape The flames are getting tall Inside my rear view mirror Just a spark is all it takes
