

Dystopia

Megadeth

What you don't know, the legend goes, can hurt you
If you only want to live and die in fear
They tell us to believe just half of what we see
And absolutely nothing that we hear

Resist the twist the truth no matter what the cost
Supplied the rights for bombs inside our heads
Allowing on the questions to the answers
That no one lies it someone else's dead

What you don't know, legend goes, can't hurt you
If you only want to live and die in a cage
There's panic and there's chaos, raping in the streets
When useless thoughts are peace are met with rage

Demoralize the know for master people think
The quickest way to end the war is loose
Dictatorship and starting with to run aside
You must destroy the castle and it's rules
