

In The Shadows Tonight

Megan & Liz

Yeah there's mountains in my mind
I keep on trying to move them
And I'm just wasting time
Cause you can't move a mountain
And they'll never move for you
There's gotta be more than this

It's like I'm torn ripped down the middle
Maybe I'm crazy not a lot just a little
Just a little bit

Follow the lights that's how it goes
But what about the shadows?
They hide the secrets that no one knows
I'm feeling scared for what I see
Giving it all trusting me
So ill just breathe
In a world of same
In a world of sunshine
I'll hide in the shadows tonight

See the walls of my room
Come closing in come afternoon
Cause it's the same thing every day
And it's up to me if I want things to change
Yeah I'm bored somebody rearrange me
Somebody rearrange me

It's like I'm torn ripped down the middle
Maybe I'm crazy not a lot just a little
Just a little bit

Follow the lights that's how it goes
But what about the shadows?
They hide the secrets that no one knows
I'm feeling scared for what I see
Giving it all trusting me
So ill just breathe
In a world of same
In a world of sunshine
I'll hide in the shadows tonight

It's like I'm torn ripped down the middle
Maybe I'm crazy not a lot just a little
Just a little bit

Follow the lights that's how it goes
But what about the shadows?
They hide the secrets that no one knows
I'm feeling scared for what I see
Giving it all trusting me
So ill just breathe
In a world of same
In a world of sunshine
I'll hide in the shadows
Oh I'll hide in the shadows tonight
