

Karma's Coming Back For Me

Megan & Liz

I never caught you in the arms of someone else
You never told me not to be myself
So why did I choose to say goodbye?
I never had a reason why

What goes around (goes around)
Comes around (comes around)
So what does that mean for me?
What goes around (goes around)
Comes around (comes around)
So what does that mean for me?

I should've known, I feel in my bones
Karma's coming back for me
I'm all alone, I made it so
Karma's coming back for me
I see you sitting there falling apart
Didn't mean to take a piece of your heart
I should've known, it's breaking every bone
Karma's coming back for me
For me
For me

I never thought that you could be the one
True that I loved you, I'm not sorry that we're done
I should've cried more, could've slammed more doors
But it didn't play out that way
Now I don't know what else to say

What goes around (goes around)
Comes around (comes around)
So what does that mean for me?
What goes around (goes around)
Comes around (comes around)
So what does that mean for me?

I should've known, I feel in my bones
Karma's coming back for me
I'm all alone, I made it so
Karma's coming back for me
I see you sitting there falling apart
Didn't mean to take a piece of your heart
I should've known, it's breaking every bone
Karma's coming back for me
Oh

So what does this mean when we're talking about me
Seven years down the road?
When I think that he's the one, could he turn around and run?
Will I deserve to be alone?

What goes around (goes around)
Comes around (comes around)

What goes around (goes around)
Comes around (comes around)
So what does that mean for me?

I should've known, I feel in my bones
Karma's coming back for me
I'm all alone, I made it so
Karma's coming back for me
I see you sitting there falling apart
Didn't mean to take a piece of your heart
I should've known, it's breaking every bone
Karma's coming back for me
Oh, for me
For me

Cried more, I should've slammed more doors
Cause karma's coming back for me
