

Walking On The Outside

Megan & Liz

I never want you to look back on me and think I was..... a mistake just remember our love and forget about.... the heartbreak we were kids playing with love because we didn't know.... that it could hurt like this and that's when the tears fell like rain

Now we're both walking on the outside in the middle of this storm hoping that it will pass but right now we're walking in the rain wishing things were different wanting things to change but as of right now we are both walking home in the storm when we say it's over it never really is we still will have a piece of each other forever thinking maybe you were the best for me maybe there is someone else but our love is still blinding me

but as of right now we are both walking home in the storm

I'm ready for this to be a happy ending for me to be able to look at you and not want to kiss you

in the middle of this storm...

because this waiting in the rain, is getting hard on me...
