

Broken Puzzle

Meghan Trainor

Well maybe it's your mind
Telling you all of the lies
Trying to show you what's right
Ohhhhhhhhhh
Well maybe you're alright
Maybe you fell out of love
But I'm not giving up

And I wonder where you are now

Don't let go
I'm still here
Waiting for your broken words
Trying to put them together again
Please take time
To realize
Nothing matters any more
We should fix our puzzle again
Mmmmmmmm

I'm forced to hide my pain
I'm forced to hide my cries
Can't handle anymore lies
And I'm lost in the showers crying for hours
Cuz no one can tell I'm gone
And I, I've never felt so wrong

And I wonder where you are now

Don't let go
I'm still here
Waiting for your broken words
Trying to put them together again
Please take time
To realize
Nothing matters any more
We should fix our puzzle again
Mmmmmmmm

Don't let me go I'm still here
Nothing matters anymore
Let's fix the broken puzzle again
