

I'll Sing With You

Meghan Trainor

For a while I, Never thought I'd Ever smile again

But I heard that simple song and told myself to sing along Suddenly I Finally see that things are not so bad Because I heard that simple song
and told myself to sing along

And it said,
When you're feeling blue
Sing a simple song
and I'll sing with you
And when your feeling sad
know that I'll be true
And I'll sing with you

For a while I
I never understood
How life could be so hard So hard Then I opened up my heart and gave myself a brand new start

Then I realized
How beautiful life turns out to be
When I heard that simple song
I told myself to sing along

And it said
When you're feeling blue
Sing a simple song
and I'll sing with you
know that I'll be true
And I'll sing with you

And it's OK when nothing goes your way It's OK when it doesn't seem right It's OK when it all falls down and no one comes around Because we'll laugh about it yeah we'll laugh about it

And When you're feeling blue Sing a simple song
and I'll sing with you
Oh Oh Oh

When you're feeling blue
when your feeling sad

And I'll sing with you

When you're feeling blue
