

Out the Door

Meghan Trainor

yesterdays gone i got a new head on today im feeling must stronger no ones getting in my way but i wont waist no time not being without you so i'll take all your time and i'll take all your love
out the door

the tears are all gone i'm feeling closer and closer to you no nes bringing me down i'm rising up so i can see you but i wont i wont wast no time
and i'm gonna take all your time

cause you make me feel, like the only girl the only one
you make it seem like my worlds just begun you can have everything i just think its me plus you yeah you know that i do i'll take all your time
out the door

yeah...i will rise
i will fall better catch me through it all i know you will just like you've always done before and thats why i'll take all your time
