Unchanging

Mehida

You never change,
although this world cries in travail You took the blame, though through Your word this world was made You chose the pain
Although in glory You were born to live
You didn't die in vain
You won the death and rose up again

You are the only one
whose power reigns forever
It shall be complete
That You have won the enemy

You gave your life to save us from the Sheol's dark despair Through your wounds you paid the price that brought us freedom
The life will never end
The death is only a door to pass
You didn't die in vain
You won the death and rose up again

You are the only one
whose power reigns forever
It shall be complete
That You have won the enemy
