

Walk By

Meiko

You said everything's gonna be all right, gonna work out this time

And I'm sure daddy's in bed, thinking 'bout my life and how to make it right now

It's a long way home

It's a long way home

And it's too late for wanting

The best thing for me now, is to walk by

And you can't keep saying the same thing to me now, so walk by

Take back the promises you made

And break free from all the things that you have left behind

Cause it's a long way home

It's a long way home

And it's too late for wanting

The best thing for me now, is to walk by

And you can't keep saying the same thing to me now, so walk by

Everything has a reason for it

Everyone has a story to tell

Everything has a reason for it

Everyone has a story, don't they?

It's a long way home

It's a long way home

It's a long way home

It's a long way home

And it's too late for wanting

The best thing for me now, is to walk by

And you can't keep saying the same thing to me now, so walk by

It's a long way home

It's a long way home

It's a long way home

It's a long way home
