

I'm living in a dream
a fairytale
I wonder what is real and what is fake?
and what is true for me
is not for you
what's reality
what does it mean to you?

Go take a look around in your everyday
to find that a miracle
is just a step away

Babysteps along the way
one little babystep every day Babysteps along the way
one little babystep is OK I'm not too little I'm not too much simply human with a female touch
I take babysteps along the way

I don't wanna pretend that it's all under control the more I try to learn the less I know I capture in my hand
an ancient soul
but I don't understand the ultimate goal

I take a look around in my everyday

I take
babysteps
