

Water falling, out to sea
can't help laughing at my own misery
The table's turning something new I better see a spark of light shining thru

I'm breaking falling
I'm tired of this part I play
I better stop this now

I'm ready
(right about now)
I'm ready
(screaming out loud)
I'm ready
I really gotta go, really gotta go
I'm ready
(Tell me are you with me?)
I'm ready
(really really with me?)
I'm ready
If you wanna go
If you wanna go?

Old reflections come from you scenes of history really nothing new but it's time to face it to say goodbye
no one likes to but there's a reason why

I'm breaking
falling
I wanna love and feel and live the here and now
