

Welcome To The Fanclub Of Love

Meja

Welcome to the fanclub of love

You, staring at the sky wish upon a star now I see what you are I can see it on you face
It something 'bout a feeling inside if you're lost in the fire you've come to the right place

Welcome to the fanclub of love
Welcome to the fanclub of love
Like a force from above
You're the star of the show
Say, Welcome to the fanclub of love

Come, live a fantasy and even if you're blind you're old enough to see Here is nothing too extreme so you don't have to hide anymore just open the door and take care of your dream

Welcome to the fanclub of love
Welcome to the fanclub of love
Like a force from above
You're the star of the show
Say, Welcome to the fanclub of love

You've been waiting patiently and finally here you are You are knocking on the door I see you reaching out for everything you can grab with your hands Now there's no need to worry
'bout the rest of your plans

Welcome to the fanclub of love
Welcome to the fanclub of love
Like a force from above
You're the star of the show
Say, Welcome to the fanclub of love
