

Ever Since Time Began

Mekong Delta

Way back in ancient days
I took the shape of a golden idol
They knelt in front of me
Worshipped me, prayed to me
I saw the greed in their eyes
Longing - fame and fortune
Yearning - Wine and women
Craving - gold and happiness
Demanding - eternal life
Ever since time began
I have been the curse of men
I saw them burning down
Cities and countries
They killed millions of men
To please me, to calm me down
I saw the greed in their eyes
Longing - fame and fortune
Yearning - Wine and women
Craving - gold and happiness
Demanding - eternal life
I've been around for so long
Their faith and devotion make me strong
Longing - fame and fortune
Yearning - Wine and women
Craving - gold and happiness
Demanding - eternal life
They've prayed at my altar
With heads bowed real low
And I've been around
Whereever they go
Whereever they go
Until the end
The end of time
There's no escape
How I like your Sacrifices
Ever since time began
Ever since time began
