

King With Broken Crown (le Diable) - Movement 4

Mekong Delta

Skull in my hands
Someone is mumbling in front of me
Nameless fear is all around Don't believe what I was told
So I've found you
Condamned king of this pain

You are here

Look at me
Malignity
What you see Eternity
Lord of fear
Can't you hear?

I sensed the spite
Behind your golden mask
Awkward years I rushed through
Try to find you
Lost myself in agony
Sentiments, walled in heart

And this Hokey
Talking
what you stand for Freedom
Mankind

So I start a war
And silently
What they are dying for
And suddenly
Now I am blinded no more
And finally
Than I opened this door
it's you and me
Now I am blinded no more
And finally
Than I openend this door
it's you and me

Don't stare at me
as if I am dehumanized
There's a lot left to do blow out candles
Can't you see it in my eyes
I am the one who take the lives
And your futile hoping can't free all those you love
mankind

So I start a war
And silently

What they are dying for
And suddenly
Now I am blinded no more
And finally
Than I opened this door
it's you and me
Now I am blinded no more
And finally
Than I openend this door
it's you and me
