Missing You

Mel Tillis

Missing you can't help but wish that you were in my arms tonigh t making love to me

Kissing you that's all I want to do it never seems just right n ow that we are apart

I always spend my time just writing lines to you Can't wait for you to write saying you love me too Missing you can't help but wish that you were in my arms tonigh t making love to me

I always spend my time
