I'm the center of attention in this barroom
Cause I've got a biggest heartache of the year
And each night those swinging doors reach out for me

And each night those swinging doors reach out for me and draw m ${\rm e}$ in

Cause they know each night that I'll come back to wine me up ag ain

Wine me up turn me on and watch me cry for you

Cause lately drinking warm red wine is all I want to do

And I never know how title wine me up till I walk in

But I don't care cause I'll be back to wine me up again

I'd like to thank to men that raised the grapes way out in Cali fornia

And I'm hoping this will be their biggest year Cause scarlet water's all that's left to keep me hanging on And that's why I'll try to wine me up each day and night she's gone

Wine me up turn me on...
