

Stronger

Melanie C

You were a strange addiction I knew so well
Fear was my condition, you cast your spell
Everything that I thought I knew faded into you and your lies
You will never break me, but you can try, you can try

Do anything you want to me
And don't be feeling bad about your misbehaving heart
Take aim and fire, you'll set me free
Trying to take me down but you will only make me
Stronger, stronger (stronger)
It only makes me
Stronger, stronger (stronger)
It only makes me...

Maybe I should thank you, you taught me well
How to wear my armor and be myself
In a moment of weakness I could run back to your lies
I am only human, but I can fight, I can fight

Do anything you want to me
And don't be feeling bad about your misbehaving heart
Take aim and fire, you'll set me free
Trying to take me down but you will only make me
Stronger, stronger (stronger)
It only makes me
Stronger, stronger (stronger)
It only makes me...

I'm not the girl I used to be, I don't need you any longer
Would you be brave enough to cross me now you see me getting stronger

Do anything you want to me
And don't be feeling bad about your misbehaving heart
Take aim and fire, you'll set me free
Trying to take me down but you will only make me
Stronger, stronger (stronger)
It only makes me
Stronger, stronger (stronger)
It only makes me...

Do anything you want to me (stronger, stronger)
And don't be feeling bad about your misbehaving heart
Take aim and fire, you'll set me free (stronger, stronger)
Trying to take me down but you will only make me
Stronger
