

Happy Homemaker

Melanie Doane

Maybe I'd be happy to let it all go Dedicate my life to making jelly molds Learn to cook and learn to sew
I'm a Happy Homemaker
Why have I been pushing so hard when I could be out in the backyard Letting down my hair letting down my guard
I'm a Happy Homemaker
Barefoot and pregnant
never looked so good We're all dying to take our shoes off Never what we want
it's always what we should Ahhh, I'm a Happy Homemaker
Maybe it'll be different this time Around We'll put to use the wisdom
I hope we've found Like to lose the crap without losing ground
I'm a Happy Homemaker
Barefoot and pregnant
never looked so good
We're all dying to take our shoes off
Gone so far the other way We're scared to be our mothers and we're scared of going soft Barefoot and pregnant
never looked so good
We're all dying to take our shoes off
Never what we want
it's always what we should
Ahhh, I'm a Happy Homemaker
