

Bad Habit

Melissa Ferrick

I won't ever let you go
I can wait here forever
Some people call it an attribute
My ability to never waiver

Cuz every day I think about you
Every day I send you telepathic thoughts

Cuz I'm trying to make you think of me
And I think sometimes you are
Thinking about me
Oh it makes you mad
(I know, baby)
But making you mad gets me off

So call and my drunken self to be call you.
To wallow in your scent I just flip that switch in my head
I close my eyes to visualize the way you looked at me
And ever since that day I knew I'd never leave.

Cuz I'm trying to make you think of me
And I think sometimes you are
Thinking about me
Oh it's making you mad
(Making you mad, making you mad, making you mad)
But making you mad kind of gets me off

Cuz it's a life life life life life life sentence
One hundred percent obsession
You are in my brain
I am your dog on a chain
I am a bad habit
I'm a loner living on my own planet
Let me give you a little advice
Stay the hell away from me

Cuz I'm trying to make you think of me
And I think sometimes you are
Thinking about me
Oh its making you mad
(Isn't it baby, making you mad?)
Making you mad is all i got now.
It's all i got now to get me off.
It's all I got to get me off.

Cuz I won't ever let you go
I can wait here forever
(I'm your dog on a chain)
I won't ever let you go
(She aint gonna let you go, baby)
(She gonna wait here forever.)
