From my bodies and the air pulled out our words there is nothing like being quiet with the one you love no, there is nothing like being quiet with the one you love

So let's go running laughing thorough a summer storm fumble up the stairs to find all the windows open and I'm feeling happy everywhere inside my body I want to be where you take me I adjust beacuse you are love
and love is home
yes
you are love

From across a gossip filled room you look at me and just know by the way I'm gripping on to the chair by the way i send the singal get me out of here there is nothing like beeing seen by the one you love no there is nothing like beeing seen by the one you love

I want to be where you take me I adjust beacuse you are love
and love is home
yes
you are love
and love is home
love is home

So give me slow days filled with ease gentle breese no humidly kinda heat resting on your every beat as we walk in time and I got my back up against nothing I got my future looking bright oh it feels like falling in love with you is like going into the light with my demons on vacation with my thoughts are free to roll and i can kiss you without committing treason and I have earned this baby because i did my time alone yes i did

Running laughing thorough a summer storm fumble up the stairs to find all the windows open and I'm

Let's go running laughing thorough a summer storm fumble up the stairs to find all the windows open and I'm

Beacuse we are love and we are home
yes
we are love
home
