

Will You Be The One

Melissa Ferrick

Will you be the one I've wanted
Will you read my mind
Will ask me where I hurt
And heal me with your eyes
Will I look at you with wonder
And never doubt our love
Yeah are you the one
That I've been dreaming of

I run around in my head
And rehearse our introduction
I run around in my car
And find the best way way to your house
And even though I have never seen you
From what my friends tell me
You are walking grace

Who'd have thought I'd be sitting here
Thinking my future could be right
Down the street
After all the loves I have lost
Over borders and over states
N' now I find out that you and I
Drink coffee
At the very same place
Could you be the one

Will you be the one I've wanted
Will you read my mind
Will ask me where I hurt
And heal me with your eyes
Will I look at you with wonder
And never doubt our love
Yeah are you the one
That I've been dreaming of

Yes it's true I am a hopeless romantic
And I am full of pretty lines
It's also true what you've heard
About me
I fall in love every time
So would you let me down easy
If I am not what you want
Would you let me down easy
I've got a really weak heart

Will you be the one I've wanted
Will you read my mind
Will ask me where I hurt
And heal me with your eyes
Will I look at you with wonder
Yeah are you the one
