

Happy Endings

Melissa Manchester

Some women you make love to
And some you marry
But I just sing my songs for you
To keep us free from worry

Oh, no, I feel it coming on again
I must be fantasy's best friend
I'm so crazy for happy endings
I do believe in new beginnings
And while I sing this song
I'm making love to you

I will not be a willow
Forever swaying
But I'll be everything I know
Until I hear me saying

It's a crying shame; it's a sad drag
But it's the best we can do
Don't cry now
Nothing's gonna come between us
As long as the music goes on and on
'Cause when it stops, I'll be gone

I'd love to share a journey that's never ending
But I know what's in store for me because I love pretending

Oh, no, I feel it coming on again
I must be fantasy's best friend
I'm so crazy for happy, so fond about happy endings
