

Holdin' On To The Lovin'

Melissa Manchester

I can't believe this love has caught up with me again
So it begins all the confusion
Too many grand delusions of romance play with me
Lose my chance for a happy ending
Stuck in the middle in between what could be and yesterday
Am I afraid anticipation is just an indication
Of a touch that could be sure enough

So that we'll be holding on to the loving
We can't miss
We're holding on to the loving

Can't resist a sympathetic attitude
Who am I fooling being cool
So I'm holding, yes, I'm holding
Love has a future
Sharing a vision it takes two to see
And believe come with me

We will be holding on to the loving
We can't miss
We're holding on to the loving
Oh, I'm holding on to you
