

The Music Of Goodbye

Melissa Manchester

A song I know so well
The music of goodbye again
It's there each time we say hello
As always there's no reason why again
You kissed me with your eyes
And in your arms I fly again
But even as we touched the clouds
There in the quiet we kissed goodbye again

Perhaps the way I hold you
Makes you afraid I'll hold you
Makes you afraid to love me
Love me

As through the night we danced
The tender dance I'd try again
I hear it playing softly
And sadly The music of goodbye...

Goodbye... goodbye... goodbye...
