Safe Place To Hide

Melissa O'Neil

I know
That it has been hard for you
It must be killing you
And I can feel
How it pulls at you
It pulls at me too
I would run away to the world I lef behind
I will find away back to you

[Chorus:]
And when you've got no where to turn
And you're all alone
When your walls a breaking yet there's no escaping
And I, I'd fly through the night
To get back to your side
I will be your safe place to hide

I was, always there for you
Always cared for you
And I'm still
Right here guarding you
Watching over you

Though I'm miles away
From the world I left behind
I will find a way back to you

[Chorus:]
And when you've got no where to turn
And you're all alone
When your walls a breaking yet there's no escaping
And I, I'd fly through the night
To get back to your side
I will be your safe place to hide

I'll be there by your side
The safe place that you hide cause nothings really changing
I'm just a few more miles away

And when you've got no where to turn
And you're all alone
Your walls are a breaking
Yet there's no escaping and
I, I'd fly through the night
To get back to your side
To be your safe place to hide
To be your safe place to hide
