

Alone = In Your Face

Mellowdrone

Its a pity to you and for us
To come all along this way
Only to be returned
Could be you, could be me, well
Operator, engine in time
You have six, I have nine
All in all you can be late
Cause I can promise you

You'll never be alone
Cause I'm on all ways with you
Till you say so
I'll never be alone
Cause you're on all ways with me
Till I say so

I'm beginning to think that my nerves
Have always been on display
I'm beginning to think
Like a turd, like a lonely
Operator, engine in time
Whats this I hear of you and a crime?
Promise me you wont be afraid
Cause I can promise you

You'll never be alone
Cause I'm on all ways with you
Till you say so
I'll never be alone
Cause you're on all ways with me
Till I say so

For real though
Its commonly known
A villain's just a
For real though

The sooner we'll get out of here
The sooner we'll know

You'll never be alone
Cause I'm on all ways with you
Till you say so
I'll never be alone
Cause you're on all ways with me
Till I say so

I say so
I say so
I say so

Whatever you do
Remember these words

In your face
