Bone Marrow

Mellowdrone

Step back and shut the door, you know
I've never seen any of these people before
You know it sounds so nice when it comes from a friend
I say we all get dolled up and let it begin

Slowly we sink, good as a weight
Hand it over softly
Before somebody else gets hurt

Light my hands on fire, my sweet angel
Take my oxygen, my bone marrow
Whatever you do, don't stop 'til you're through
It'll be alright, it'll be alright
Take my oxygen, my sweet angel

Oh no, let's put the drugs in the back
Just like old times in that brown Pontiac
I used to be so strong in the arms
But now they're small, they're small

Slowly we sink, good as a weight
Hand it over softly
Before somebody else gets hurt, gets hurt

Light my hands on fire, my sweet angel
Take my oxygen, my bone marrow
Whatever you do, don't stop 'til you're through
It'll be alright, it'll be alright
Take my oxygen, my sweet angel
