

Sugar

Mellowdrone

The hardest time is in the morning
One look up -- the sun loads up the turrets
I recognize I am not losing my cool
Every time I sit down and think about it

You are a tumor of love
And sugar
Sweet sugar sugar sugar...
You are a tumor of love
And sugar

We always have these deep discussions
Just for you
I'm always having something
Whatever happens to them I'm washing my sins
Oh, little dude, please say it isn't so

You are a tumor of love
And sugar
Sweet sugar sugar sugar...
You are a tumor of love
And sugar

I'm an angry bear...

You are a tumor of love
